

Europe — SZIGETI TRIUMPHS — America

Of the few violinists of the younger generation today who possess genius, Joseph Szigeti stands at the head. —Vienna, Neue Freie Presse

A perfect technique, ravishing tone, and remarkable personality. —Cologne, Germany

A perfect example of violin playing. —London Times

A great violinist, great in all the things that matter. His tone is gloriously beautiful. —London Daily Telegraph

A treat beyond criticism. —London Sunday Times

Minutes of unchequered bliss. —London Morning Post

This phenomenal performance compelled new admiration of this altogether extraordinary artist. —Berlin, Morgenpost

One of the greatest of our time. —Berlin, Dr. Max Marschall, Vossische Zeitung

Unites highest virtuosity, sense-stirring beauty of tone, soul and the finest musical culture. —Munich, Neueste Nachrichten

A Magician of the violin. —Madrid, La Epoca

A wizard of the violin. —Rome, Giornale d'Italia

One of the world's greatest violinists. —Paris, Monde Musicale

King of violinists. —Paris, EMILE VUILLERMOZ, Excelsior

One of the truly great whom one may safely mention in one breath with Kreisler. —Vienna, Wiener Zeitung

STYLE

He is a master of style. —PITTS SANBORN, New York Telegram

Exquisite taste. —New York Evening World

Style of innate refinement. —New York Sun

Refined exquisite polished style. —New York American

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

This encomium would be incomplete without mention of the fact that the young man is personally attractive and has an impeccable stage manner. —St. Paul Pioneer Press

TONE

Szigeti's tone is of surpassing purity. —Philadelphia Inquirer

A tone of ravishing loveliness. —St. Paul Pioneer Press

Enchanting tone. —Omaha World Herald

Fairly dazzled by the beauty of his tone. —Philadelphia North American

Sublimely beautiful. —HERMANN DEVRIES, Chicago American

Superlative violin art. —Cincinnati Times Star

Such an enchanting tone has never before been heard in Omaha. —Omaha World Herald

1927-1928

Mr. Szigeti returns next season on his 3rd American tour. He will be available only from November, 1927 to February 15, 1928.

Concert Management
ARTHUR JUDSON

STEINWAY HALL
NEW YORK

Baldwin Piano

Columbia Records

SUCCESS

Szigeti wins an ovation. —New York Times

Szigeti wins triumph. —New York Herald Tribune

Enthusiastically recalled. —Minneapolis Journal

Brought his audience to a pitch of enthusiasm which was epoch-making in local annals. —EUGENE STINSON, Chicago Daily Journal

Received a greater degree of personal applause from the orchestra than any artist on record. —Cincinnati Times Star

Brought back for half a dozen bows. —Detroit Evening Times

Szigeti in real triumph. —Toledo Blade

More fascinating with every appearance. —Philadelphia Record

TECHNIQUE

Easily stands today as the most gifted technician that we have heard in years. —MAURICE ROSENFELD, Chicago Daily News

He has nearly all that Heifetz has in the way of technique and a good deal more than that wizard in the way of heart. —St. Louis Globe Democrat

Astounding! His thirds in fragile flageolets were particularly wonderful. —Minneapolis Journal

His technique touches the peak of perfection. —Philadelphia Inquirer

His wonderful trill, his perfect legato, his classic style. —Cincinnati Times Star

There were nobility, beauty of tone, and deep sense of emotional significance. —Minneapolis Morning Tribune

A thing of unblemished beauty. —Detroit Evening Times

An artistic achievement of huge proportions. —St. Paul Daily News

Exquisite. —New York Evening Post

Refined, exquisite. —New York American

A masterly performance. —New York Times

Making of it a thing of the rarest beauty. Showed his virtuosity from an astounding aspect. —Minneapolis Journal

One of the giants of the violin world. —Cincinnati Enquirer

Definitely wrote his name on the scroll of distinguished virtuosi of his instrument. —New York World

Exquisite craftsmanship. —RICHARD L. STOKES, New York Evening World

Violin playing of an exceptional order. —OLIN DOWNES, New York Times

PACKARD BLDG.
PHILADELPHIA