

Welcome to Barcelona Obertura Season 22-23

Classical music from Barcelona to the world

We are proud to present a new edition of Barcelona Obertura, Classic & Lyric season, a joint initiative of the Liceu Opera Barcelona, the Palau de la Música Catalana and L'Auditori Barcelona to promote Barcelona as one of the global cities where classical music matters.

With the enormous success of the first Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival in March 2019, our town has now a festival devoted to the most renowned and celebrated classical music artists, showing also the talent of our local musicians.

This collaboration between different institutions ensures a great potential and shows the capacity of the cultural institutions in Barcelona.

I want to thank the three institutions for their commitment, their directors and teams, and all our partners involved in this project for their work. Barcelona Obertura is a joint commitment to show the ambition of this town to become one of the most attractive cultural capitals in the south of Europe.

As a member of Barcelona Global, I am proud of this project and its future.

Ramon Agenjo
President of Barcelona Obertura

Barcelona Obertura

Classical music from Barcelona to the world

The Liceu Opera Barcelona, the Palau de la Música Catalana and L'Auditori Barcelona have come together in a unique initiative promoted by Barcelona Global to make the city the best destination for classical music lovers from all over the world.

A fantastic repertoire to enjoy in a fantastic city

Each season, Barcelona Obertura selects the best concerts and musical productions from the three venues and groups them together in special packages, offering the visitor an exquisite experience.

Packages for each season are published on the website www.barcelonaobertura.com

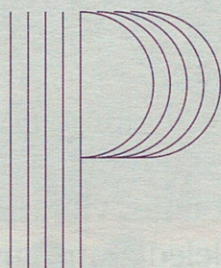

Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival &
Barcelona Obertura Ciutat de Clàssica

Mediterranean lifestyle, boundless culture, fabulous architecture, museums and an unparalleled dining and drinking scene. Any time is great to visit Barcelona, but if there's a choice, March should be the election. That's when Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival and Barcelona Obertura Ciutat de Clàssica take place, and the whole city blooms and breathes classical music.

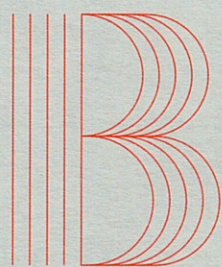

Barcelona, City of Music

Pau Casals, Alícia de Larrocha, Frederic Mompou, Josep Carreras, Jaume Aragall, Montserrat Caballé, Victoria de los Angeles, Jordi Savall, Cuarteto Casals... all have one thing in common: they call Barcelona their hometown. The city has always been proud of their rich musical heritage. Following continuous efforts over many decades, today Barcelona enjoys an exceptional variety of music on offer at three spectacular venues that just for themselves, are well worth a visit, Liceu Opera Barcelona, Palau de la Música Catalana and L'Auditori Barcelona. These institutions present, season after season, very attractive programs which welcome many major artists of our times to Barcelona. By dimension and scope, Barcelona truly is a city of music.

Come for the music,

Barcelona is considered one of the most attractive cities in the world to visit and enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle. It has boundless culture, fabulous architecture and museums, vibrant festivals and an unparalleled dining and drinking scene.

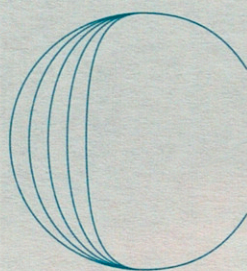

It is a city with a wide and original range of leisure activities that encourages you to visit again and again. Overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, and famous for Gaudí and other modernist architecture, Barcelona is one of the most modern cities in Europe.

It is a centre of new trends in the world of culture, fashion and gastronomy. It combines the creativity of its artists and designers with respect and care for local traditions. Barcelona combines the charm and slower rhythm of the old town, the avant-garde vibe of the most modern neighbourhoods and the fast beat of one of the most visited cities in the world. Its warm climate, with more than 2,500 hours of sunshine a year, make it an ideal city to visit all year round.

stay for the rest.

Ciutat de Clàssica

“Ciutat de Clàssica” is a classical music festival. It’s fresh, different and open to all kinds of audiences. Taking place from the 10th to the 26th of March 2023, in unexpected places; museums, art galleries, libraries and neighborhood civic centers or even historic buildings such as Casa Batlló, the Mies Van der Rohe pavilion or the Barcelona Supercomputing Center. More than 20 free concerts given by young local talents, bringing music to everyone through an inclusive and dynamic programme of musical events. A different way of approaching Barcelona’s musical scene.

Discover Ciutat de Classica’s programme by visiting www.barcelonaobertura.com

The spring arrives, the plants are blooming and everyone is out in the streets.

Classical music too.
